Award Descriptions

The aim of the Community Builder Awards is to celebrate excellence among elected officials, honour long-serving members of the NWTAC, and recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to and improved the well-being of residents within our Member Communities. AON's kind sponsorship of these awards goes a long way in assisting the NWTAC to recognize leadership and innovation across the NWT.

There are three categories in which a Member Community can submit a nomination:

1. Community Builder

This award recognizes a past or current Elected Official who has provided exemplary leadership on council and in their community.

Eligibility

- Must be or have been an elected official of an NWTAC Member Community;
- Must be nominated by an NWTAC Member Community in Good Standing.

Criteria

- Active in community organizations outside of their duties on council;
- Responsible for innovation in how the council/community government operates.

2. Community Service Award

This award recognizes an individual, an organization, or a business that has demonstrated exemplary service to Member Communities in the NWT. This could be in the area of infrastructure development, volunteerism, youth development or other significant contributions.

Criteria

- Has made a significant contribution in improving the well-being of a NWT Community and its residents.

3. Roll of Honour (Long Service)

Elected Officials who have served for 15 years or longer on a Member Community Government are eligible to be named to the NWTAC's Roll of Honour.

Eligibility

- Served on a Member Community Government for at least 15 years
