TO: NWTAC Member Communities
FROM: NWTAC Nominating Committee
RE: NWTAC Board Election 2022 For an in person AGM

As a member community of the NWT Association of Communities (NWTAC) you are a member with the right to nominate individuals for election to the Board of the NWTAC. A nominee must be a member of council.

The NWTAC Board is composed of 7 elected positions. 5 positions are up for election in 2022. The Presidents position is for a one year term and the four directors are for a 2 year term.

Procedure for Elections!

What positions are up for election!

This year, the position of President and two Directors position for each caucus that is (1) Cities, Towns and Villages and (2) Charter Communities, and Hamlets, Tliche Government or Community Governments are up for election.

The position of President is voted on at large. The President shall hold office for 1 year following the Annual General Meeting.

This year as well, 2 Directors for each Caucus (1) Cities, Towns and Villages and (2) Charter Communities, and Hamlets, Tliche Government) are up for election.

The position of Director for each caucus, shall be elected from the membership within that caucus, i.e., members within caucus 1 shall elect the Directors for Cities, Towns and Villages. Caucus 2 shall elect the Directors for Charter Communities, Hamlets, Tlichu Government or Community Government.
